COSANOVA HAUTLENCE

Mon, Mar 16, 2009 by Scott

Swiss designer Claudio D'Amore of Cosanova Product Design brings us his latest work, the Hautlence timepiece. The dial design is fabulous, inspired by the aesthetics of machined engine parts. Even though there is so much going on, each element on the dial serves a specific purpose and together adds to the complex elegance of the overall design. This watch will satisfy even the most die hard gear head. See the square dial design after the jump.
